

Jared Dawson

Mr. Jared Dawson is currently Manager of Corporate Accounting at Nicola Wealth. He is also an active member of the Nicola Wealth Gives Back charity committee, an employee run committee that directs donations to deserving causes out of corporate profits on an on-going basis.

Jared graduated from Simon Fraser University with a Bachelor of Business Administration (joint major Finance & Geography). Additionally, he earned a Diploma of Accounting from the University of British Columbia and also holds a Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA) designation.

Before joining Nicola Wealth in July of 2020, Jared was employed by Baker Tilly WM LLP (formerly Collins Barrow Vancouver) as a manager and articling student from 2014. Prior to engaging in the accounting profession, he was employed by the Fairmont Waterfront hotel in various capacities from 2007.

Jared is an ardent music fan across many genres, including classical. As a resident of Mount Pleasant in Vancouver, he enjoys spending time in the neighborhood taking in the various cultural arts. He is also interested in following baseball, politics, financial markets and current events.