

Shiuman Ho - Biography

Shiuman's early training as a civil engineer instilled in him an analytical, disciplined, and collaborative approach that he applies to his discretionary portfolio management and wealth planning practice at RBC. He earned his MBA from the London Business School in the UK and also hold the Chartered Investment Management (CIM®) designation. Fluent in English, Cantonese and Mandarin, he has lived in Asia and Europe.

Shiuman now resides in Vancouver with his wife and two children and strives for a balanced life by pursuing recreational tennis, road biking and classical music. He volunteered as a Governor for St. John's School and served for two years as the Chair of their Board.

Shiuman speaks English, Cantonese, and Mandarin.