POWERFUL PERFORMANCES

19
SEASON

Dear Friends,

It's with a great deal of joy and excitement that we unveil our 39th Season of performances. Can you believe we're almost at the big four-oh mark? It's such a privilege to be here, thriving, and to be able to present you with great artists such as those listed on the following pages. Each season is special; each brings its own unique musical revelations.

The 2018-19 Season sees the return (after an absence of 18 years) of Evgeny Kissin, one of the great pianists of our time. I can't tell you how fortunate we are that he has included Vancouver on one of his very rare visits to the west coast. Another wonderful pianist from our distant past, Italian Andrea Lucchesini, will be heard on the Classic Afternoons at the Chan Centre Series. His last visit to Vancouver was in 1988 when he performed at the Vancouver Playhouse. He is the first musician I ever re-booked before the actual concert, and, as a result, he came to us three seasons in a row. Speaking of three... the other remarkable pianists on our Classic Afternoons series include Yevgeny Sudbin, Behzod Abduraimov, and Igor Levit.

On our Peak Performances at the Playhouse Series, you'll hear the captivating British baritone Simon Keenlyside with pianist Malcolm Martineau, and a fabulous piano trio consisting of pianist Lars Vogt, violinist Christian Tetzlaff, and cellist Tanja Tetzlaff. Rounding out the series is the dynamic Danish String Quartet, an ensemble of young, shaggy-haired Danes that completely enthralled us in previous seasons.

The outstanding artists you'll hear on the Edwina and Paul Heller Next Generation Series at the Playhouse comprise a veritable United Nations of music. They hail from Hungary, the United States, Thailand, China, Italy, Finland, Taiwan, and Spain. No matter where they're from, if they're young and gifted, we find them! And we should also mention that five of the six concerts in this series feature Canadian debuts.

This season, the POP OUT Performances just keep on coming! We're bringing you a program of string sextets at the Chan Centre with violist Pinchas Zukerman, cellist Amanda Forsyth, and the always-brilliant Jerusalem Quartet. Paul Lewis returns to complete his journey through the music of Brahms, Beethoven, and Haydn in two concerts at the Playhouse, culminating in Beethoven's great Diabelli Variations. And we're joining forces with Early Music Vancouver to present the wonderful Chiaroscuro Quartet with fortepianist Kristian Bezuidenhout. Expect to hear some outstanding Mozart from these musicians.

We're absolutely thrilled to welcome the Peak Group of Companies as our new Season Sponsor. They've supported us in a variety of ways over the years and we're most grateful for that support, and for their expanded role starting this season.

I hope you'll be as excited about the upcoming season as we are. Bring your friends, and your friends' friends. This is the bandwagon on which you'll want to jump!

EVGENY KISSIN

PIANO

Tuesday October 9 2018 at 7:30pm

CHAN CENTRE FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

Evgeny Kissin's genius was discovered in his first solo debut in Moscow at the age of 12. He made his European debut at 16, and his explosive American debut at Carnegie Hall just 10 days before his 19th birthday. Now, at the age of 45, he is still in constant demand, selling out major concert halls around the world. His musicality, the depth and poetic quality of his interpretations, and his extraordinary virtuosity have earned him the kind of veneration and admiration reserved for only the most gifted classical pianists.

Evgeny appeared on our series in 1996, and again in 1999. We've been trying to bring him back for years and our patience and perseverance have paid off. We're thrilled to present him on one of his very rare visits to the west coast.

VANCOUVER PLAYHOUSE

Wrapping up his four-concert musical journey into the works of Haydn, Brahms and Beethoven, Paul Lewis continues to reveal his deep understanding of, and sensitivity to, the music of these three Austro-German masters. The first of his four concerts in our 2017-18 Season set a high bar indeed, underlining the humour in Haydn and the tenderness in Brahms; Beethoven's rarely heard Bagatelles made a great link between the two opposites. Experience the magic of Paul Lewis as he draws you into the very heart of the music.

FORTEPIANO

Sunday March 10 2019 at 3pm

VANCOUVER PLAYHOUSE

Formed in 2005, the Chiaroscuro Quartet comprises Russian violinist Alina Ibragimova (who debuted on our series in 2008), Spanish violinist Pablo Hernán Benedí, Swedish violist Emilie Hörnlund, and French cellist Claire Thirion. Dubbed "a trailblazer for the authentic performance of High Classical chamber music" by Gramophone, this international ensemble performs music of the Classical and early Romantic periods on gut strings with historical bows. The quartet's unique sound (described in The Observer as "a shock to the ears of the best kind") is highly acclaimed by audiences and critics all over Europe.

Kristian Bezuidenhout is one of today's most notable and exciting keyboard artists, equally at home on the fortepiano, harpsichord, and modern piano. He gained international attention when he won First Prize and the Audience Prize (at the age of 21) in the Bruges Fortepiano Competition. Kristian's rich and award-winning discography on Harmonia Mundi includes the complete keyboard works of Mozart and Mendelssohn, and Mozart Piano Concertos, which he recorded with the Freiburger Barockorchester.

SUPPORT THE VRS

What started as a dream in 1980 has grown into one of the leading recital series in the classical music world. Described by many musicians as “the Wigmore Hall of the West”, the VRS has built a loyal and enthusiastic audience through its bold discoveries of new talent from around the globe. A debut on the VRS stage is a call to action for other presenters across North America.

Nurturing audiences of the future is as important to the VRS as nurturing young musicians. Mentorships, masterclasses, and school concerts are part of every VRS season.

We strive for “awesomeness” always. We’re bold. We’re daring. We’re passionate about our performances and your passion drives ours... but it takes more than passion to keep a series like ours going.

Thanks to the generous support of our sponsors, donors and patrons, the VRS is the Gold Standard. Your support helps shine the spotlight on the next generation of artists and brings the ‘who’s who’ of classical music to Vancouver.

Yvgeny Kissin. Sir András Schiff. Yo-Yo Ma. Joshua Bell. Yuja Wang. To name (but) a few.

Giving is easy. You can donate online at vanrecital.com, you can call our office, or you can add a donation to your subscription or single ticket order.

If you would like information about how to donate securities, sponsor a concert or series, or if you’re interested in making an Encore Performance by including the VRS in your estate planning or making a contribution to our endowment, give us a call at 604 602 0363. We’re here to help.
